The WBP Jack DIY rifle showcases solid features from a renowned firearms manufacturer. WBP, a Polish firearms company, provides parts and firearms to police, military, and civilian shooters worldwide. Chambered in 7.62x39 semi-auto, the Jack rifle is compatible with various magazines and drums. With its classic AK appearance and striking deep black metal finish, this rifle exudes a timeless style.

The barrels, supplied by FB Radom, a prominent Polish military supplier, are hammer-forged and chrome-lined, offering long-lasting performance and excellent accuracy. The rifle features factory serial numbers on most major components and displays the Polish Eagle on the left side of the sight block, enhancing its collectability and resale value. To complete your setup, simply add your preferred AK stock set, a magazine, and ammunition, and you'll be all set for range fun!
